Note under the revised scheme the Municipal Council will have to bear a further proportion of the expenditure on Primary Edn. It is a matter for consideration whether the fund of the Municipality should be spent on such special items as instruction in the deaf Mutes Institution. It is very useful but I doubt whether the Municipal Council can afford to spare the amount if it is made to contribute to the share of the cost of Primary Edn.

is a most commendable intention But once again it is a costly question of pounds. Do the Md. Cl Justices in Sparing Rs 20 pa on each such individual, & so the no of inmates increase with dot the recurring Expenditure goes heavier every year? The Enthusiasm is much to be appreciated but what about the due discharge of the responsibilities undertaken? From the letter of the Honry. Resdt it is not clear to me that the matter has received the detailed consideration that it requires. A further enquiry may be made.

Chief Officer's Memo dated 5-7-1920

In consultation with Mr P N Venkata Rao, specialist in the Education of the Deaf and the Blind, Mysore, the annexed statement showing the initial and the recurring cost of the proposed deaf and dumb School for girls in the Bangalore City is prepared and submitted

It is ascertained that the maximum strength of the school may go up to 10 girls.

One lady teacher, Sri V Lakshamma, who has recently passed the teacher-ship examination of the Deaf and who has also passed the S S L C. Examination is available for being employed as the lady teacher in charge of the school It is ascertained that the minimum pay she would accept will be Rs 50 + 10 (allowance) with house accommodation and that no other lady teacher is now available in the whole of India

In addition, one teacher to impart instruction in rattan work and another in tailoring will be necessary These will be employed only half time or 2 hours a day A conductress is very essential

A decent building is said to be very necessary in a central part such as Chamarajpet This will also serve as the residence of the lady teacher

The recurring charges are calculated to be Rs 148/- a month or in round figures Rs 150/- a month or Rs 1800/- a year

The initial expenditure for the purchase of furniture books, apparatus, etc will be Rs 430/-

If the Council are pleased to sanction a grant of Rs 2230/- for both recurring and initial expenditure for the year

Please permit me to remind you of the proposal you have so kindly made about starting a School for the Deaf in your place The lady under training has been duly declared to have passed in the required Public Examination, and is ready for employment Even the practical course was over She has to accept any appointment of which there is an inducement, lest she should be idle

It may be therefore, desirable for the Municipality to hurry up the proposal Can you do it in anticipation? If you so order kindly, the lady may be directed to report hereself for duty at once Otherwise she may accept any otner appointment in which case there will be defeat of the object of both of us If she is got there, she will be making preliminary arrangement for the public opening ceremony of the unique institution for which the Municipality in you and the President are to be -- thanked particularly for kind hard labour

Thanking you in anticipation of an early reply
